

I understand that the CBA has challenged Indiana's Telephone Privacy law and is attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. I strongly oppose this proposed weakening of Indiana's law and sincerely hope that you will act in favor of the citizens of Indiana in this matter. Indiana residents DO NOT want more unwanted phone calls.